How to fu-fu

What is wife and wife?

Miyako Sumi (nicknames: Sau-chan) and Himefuji Kinana (nicknames: Kina) are a yuri couple living in the capital of a certain prefecture. Having achieved their dream of living together and becoming "wife and wife," every day is full of neither calamity nor emotional ups and downs, but instead with endless flirting and tranquility!

That's the gist.

MIYAKO SUMI

The Sau-chan half of the flirtatious couple, a serious girl with her trademark glasses. She's always quick with a comeback, but her occasional tendency to lose control is the one chink in her armor. Or maybe her most powerful weapon.

She's super-duper crazy in love with Kina. Her hobby is sleeping with Kina in her arms. Actually, the reason she works from home is to allow more potential time to flirt with Kina.

HIMEFUJI KINANA

The Kina half of the flirtatious couple. She's gentle and a bit of an airhead. She can be a bit of an aggressive schemer at times, but she only puts her powers to use when she wants to fool around with Sau-chan.

She's a resident of this particular prefecture and a native speaker of its dialect. Her older twin sister is a denizen of the yuri world as well.

Oh, hello. It's me.
Hisonari Minamoto. A pleasure.

This time, I'm putting out an original book for the first time in a while.

This is a bonus chapter of the flirtatious comedy
wife and wife currently running in Yuri Hime S.
Although it's an extra chapter, it's the origin story of this yuri couple, so hopefully even new readers can enjoy it at their leisure.
I think? (Probably?)

I'd love it if this book would inspire first time readers to check out wife and wife in Yuri Hime S.
Starting this fall, it will be making the jump to Yuri Hime, so I'd love it even more if all the readers made the transition with us.

Okay, enough advertising. I gave it a shot, boss.

I did what I had to do, so please enjoy the doujin version of wife and wife.

Without further adieu,

Hisonari Minamoto
